Autumnwinds

Soaking rain...

fresh & cold...

Even if the sun does its best to mild the worst..

there is sadness in the wind..

"Dancing in the wind"

coz.. I have one to share this time with...

there is the "everyday" share...

Tho..

What if...

would I manage..

I hope I will never find out...

will never be alone again...

The Future is unknown...

but yet one can sense what will be..

This wind makes the air fresh..

& lots more to come...

to ever & after warm up the freezing heart...

give a piece of that puzzle to fulfill life & strength

it will never get another piece of my heart...

the wind makes me almost afraid...

its going to be an icy winter....

But I keep my loved ones close...

as they makes me...

let the Autumn wind blow...

there is still time to heal...

But sure it smells chilly...

we are not that big...
